The Night Train at Deoli and Other Stories - Ruskin Bond

I was going to refuse, out of shyness and suspicion, but she took me by the hand, and then I felt it would be silly to pull my hand away. She told a coolie to look after my suitcase, and then she went down the platform. Her hand was gentle, and she held mine neither too firmly nor too lightly. I looked up at her again. She was not young.

Sep 02, 2022 · Love is a feeling, an emotion, a noun. But even more, love is a verb, an action, a decision. Feelings may come and go, but actions – serving, sacrificing, expressing love – can last as long as the years unfold. Our actions show the depth and meaning of our love; they give substance to our feelings. They help us remain steadfast ...

intense irritation with my assigned readings and a sneaking suspicion that perhaps the problem was me—I was too dumb to read academic texts. Whichever it was—a problem with the readings or with me, I carefully chose my classes so that I could read novels, poetry, and plays for credit. But even in my English classes, I discovered, I had to read
